

Practice Management Seminars AMCNO Discount Programs

AMCNO brings you discounted seminars to support your practice's financial viability and regulatory compliance.

These seminars offer CEUs from The American Academy of Professional Coders (AAPC) and Practice Management Institute (PMI).

Emergency Procedures: What Practice Coders Need to Know-3 CEUs

March 11th 8:30am-11:30am $139 Course# 17740

This class will begin with a review of all E&M CPT codes for physicians' billing for private specialty practices and emergency rooms. Increase revenue and compliance by correctly coding all emergency room procedures. We'll discuss the codes that are often missed and why. The class will include a discussion of the importance of modifiers - when and why they should be used.

Cardiology Coding-3 CEUs

March 20th 8:30am-11:30am $139 Course # 17738

This program will include a review of the anatomy of the heart, its cardiovascular and electrical system. A brief description of the most common cardiac-related conditions will be addressed as well as the types of non-invasive and invasive testing used to diagnose and/or treat these conditions. Participants will be given examples of specific coding scenarios and the common modifiers used in cardiology coding.

Specialty Coding: Managed Care Update-2 CEUs

March 20th 12:30pm-2:30pm $120 Course # 18933

Maneuvering the rules of Managed Care can be challenging for even the most seasoned practice manager and coder. Join us for a specialty coding reimbursement workshop that will address the most important topics for coders, billers and practice managers. Specialties will include Primary Care, Cardiology, Obstetrics, and Gynecology as well as any other specialties that have key trend changes. Examine correct coding, reimbursement nuances and managed care specifications for payers in the Greater Cleveland market. Hear about recent market trends and economic conditions affecting our healthcare market. Test your managed care knowledge for specialties and take home tools to use with your staff.
